TITLE: Beaded crochet bracelet and flower

Duration: 3 hours

Description: Under the instruction of Véronique, you will learn how to crochet beaded lacework or how to crochet and bead jointly. You will be given a kit allowing you to create two projects: a bracelet and a flower. The flower can be transformed into jewelry, decoration or integrated into other creations as adornment. The projects will be crocheted with nylon thread and adorned with beads that you will incorporate according to the two techniques imparted.

Kit (to pay to the artist at the beginning of the session): 20 €

The kit contains: Thread and beads will be provided, as well as explanations for making both items. For the duration of the workshop, the crochet needles necessary in completing the projects will also be provided. Should you wish to purchase these needles, one stand at the show will be selling them.

You have to bring for the class: scissors and embroidery needles

Level required: Basic crocheting experience is required. Students must know how to crochet single crochet, double crochet, treble and slip stitch.
